MY FATHER'S SON
A Generational Journey
by Wayne Alcorn

Wayne Alcorn has seen the radical life-change that happens in men as they embrace the love of God the Father.

And he has seen that love heal and transform men's lives – his father's, his own and the countless men across Australia he has talked to and helped heal.

This is his – and their – story. And the story of how God's love transforms generations. A story that just might change your life.

This book aims to:

Provide encouraging stories of lives transformed through a relationship with God

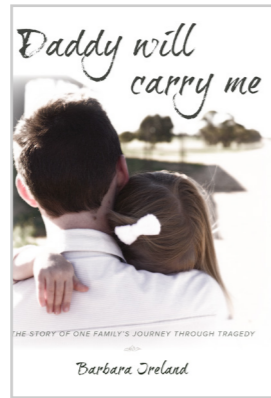

Give insight into how the love of a Father God can heal lives

Inspire to transform lives and future generations by embracing God's love

DADDY WILL CARRY ME
The Story of One Family's Journey Through Tragedy
by Barb Ireland

Paul and Barb Ireland endured the loss of three-year-old Laura in 2003 due to a horrific accident.

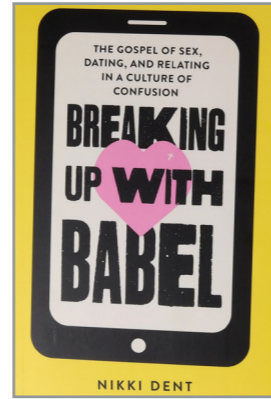

Daddy will carry me tells their story; a book for those enduring grief and those who stand with them – pastors, family members, friends, community.

"Barbara takes you on a raw and honest journey - documenting her family's pathway through pain - and guiding you to emerge with a profound sense of hope. That no matter the darkness, it is possible for light to shine again. Daddy will carry me, will encourage anyone travelling a similar path through grief." – Christie Gallen

BREAKING UP WITH BABEL
The Gospel of Sex, Dating & Relating in a Culture of Confusion
by Nikki Dent

When it comes to sex, dating, and relating, there's no need for Christians to cave into confusing cultural trends. This hope-filled book provides a Scripture-based perspective on sex, dating, and romance that compels Christians to walk in purity and passion.

Breaking Up with Babel presents a sexual gospel that outshines the humanistic messages of broken sexuality, pornography, sex outside of marriage, and digital dating in a Babel-weary world. It's time to break up with Babel for good and return to the Garden.

Author Nikki Dent is an ACC pastor, Bible teacher, and itinerant preacher with over a decade of experience ministering to young people and providing biblical answers to their modern questions.

THE CHAT
For Fathers with Sons:
Understanding Puberty,
Pornography, Sex & Marriage
 by Joel Chelliah

The Chat is a children's book that has been written to help fathers have the all important 'sex chat' with their sons.

It is a brilliant Christian resource that acts as a conversation starter. The book is split into two sections: the first portion helping fathers to prepare themselves for the conversation, whilst section 2 (dedicated for both fathers and sons) is brilliantly illustrated to engage young boys.

The Chat is unapologetically Bible based and is written to be read interactively so as to strengthen the bonds between parent and child. It facilitates discussions on the pertinent issues of sex, puberty, pornography and gender.

One chair can change a life.

100% of Alloyfold's profits are invested into their ministry - to help people make a fresh start - the heart of the Gospel.

Alloyfold's organisation is a ministry of Riccarton Community Church, and the gospel of Christ is central to their mission.

100% of Alloyfold's profits are owned by Pathway Charitable Group, who provides prisoner reintegration services, affordable housing, drug and alcohol rehab and employment for those with barriers.

Over the past 25 years Alloyfold has made an impact on thousands of lives, creating stable futures and preventing the negative cycles of reoffending that are so common.

They have also joined with churches across Australia to provide amazing seating solutions. Replacing old pews with comfortable loose seating, or helping to create inspiring auditorium-style spaces of worship is Alloyfold's bread and butter.

And each project has helped Alloyfold fund their mission. So when they say "One chair can change a life", they really mean it. You can learn more about Alloyfold and their mission online at: alloyfold.com.au

Tips to Host a Great Event

BY ESSIE BLASE

Church events hold a special place in our lives, bringing us together and allowing us to deepen our faith. But let's face it, organising these events can be quite the challenge, consuming our time and energy. That's why, as someone who shares your passion for church activities, I'd like to offer you some simple tips for when you plan your next event.

I'm incredibly passionate about the gathering of believers. The ultimate goal is to create spaces where people can encounter God. So how do we achieve that? I believe it starts with intentional planning and outworking of vision and mission. It's about being prayerful and sensitive to what God wants to do through us during the planning and delivery of the event.

Let's embark on this journey together, putting our hearts into every detail, and creating an event that will leave a lasting impact on the lives of those who attend. So, here are a few friendly pointers to help you plan and execute events within your church:

* Start with a Clear Purpose and Vision

The first step is to clearly define the purpose and vision of your event. What are you hoping to achieve? Once you have a clear idea, you can build the rest of your event around this foundation.

When we embarked on planning the ACC National Conference with the theme of "Outpouring", we had a specific outcome and practical elements in mind. This guided our decision-making process, from the branding, songlist and guest ministry to the kids' program and everything in between.

* Build Around a Theme

Having a theme is a great way to ensure your event has a clear purpose. It can be as simple as a word or phrase that captures the essence of what you want to convey.

* Plan Ahead and Get Organised

It may sound obvious, but planning ahead and staying organised is crucial. Sometimes, despite our best intentions, we can become overwhelmed. That's why creating a detailed timeline of tasks to be completed before, during, and after the event is essential. It keeps us on track and ensures everything is done.

At conference, we had a team motto: "There will always be something to solve, fix, or change. Let's not have it be something we could have addressed earlier." This mindset helped us stay ahead of potential issues.

CREATING A SPECIAL OPENING

Storytellers Co were honoured to work alongside artists across the state in producing the ACC23 Conference opener. Based on Joel 2:28, we as artists prayed and created with an expectation that God was going to move people from dry places to experiencing a fresh outpouring.

We all know the classic scene from Chariots of Fire with that incredible piece of music that automatically makes you want to jump on your feet and pretend to run in slow motion. This scene has nothing glamorous or fancy, but it moves people from spectating to participating. It inspires and calls people to significance.

I highlight this because this scene has key ingredients for an effective conference opener – moving people from spectating to participating in something significant. The significant place we wanted to move people toward was an open heaven!

Every time the cast got together, we spent time in prayer and worship, allowing God to hover over the piece we were creating. It was important that the piece reflected the scripture, representing young and old, men and women, all people being refreshed in the outpouring of God's Spirit. It was a powerful declaration to make over conference, using a range of creative expressions.

May I encourage you to pick up your own creative tools of design, composition, dance, and media when creating your own event opener. However, keep in mind that the goal is not to entertain, be glamorous, or fancy, but to move people toward the place you are believing you want to go. Our desire was to move people toward experiencing an outpouring.

– Bethany Carlos, Storytellers Co.

* Creativity

Creativity is a powerful gift that can bring life to an event! It has the ability to captivate hearts and minds and evoke emotions. Through creative elements such as music, art, design, and storytelling, you can create an atmosphere where attendees encounter God in fresh and profound ways. Bethany Carlos from Storytellers Co shares some of the behind-the-scenes detail of the ACC23 opener (left).

* The Attendee's Experience

The ultimate success of your church event or conference hinges on the experience of the attendees. To create an engaging and meaningful experience, consider the following:

* Program When planning your event schedule, aim for a perfect blend of sessions, breakouts, and free time. Give your attendees opportunities to connect with one another, build relationships, and share experiences. By finding the right balance, you'll ensure they don't miss out on any important sessions while still having ample time to mingle and enjoy the event.

* Hospitality plays a crucial role in making attendees feel valued and well-informed. Consider providing refreshments to keep their energy levels up and their taste buds happy.

* Comfortable seating goes a long way in ensuring they can fully engage with the sessions without any discomfort.

* Kids program: Don't forget to offer a well-organised and engaging kids program to cater to families attending the event.

* Venue preparation: Lastly, maintaining a clean and inviting venue will make everyone feel right at home.

Organising a successful church event or conference requires careful planning and execution. By starting with a clear purpose and vision, planning ahead, staying organised, and focusing on creating a positive attendee experience, you can host an event that leaves a lasting impact. So, embrace the challenge, rally your team, and let's make this event truly extraordinary!
